A dependent who is no longer eligible as defined in "Your Employee Benefits" booklet can continue optional benefits in force at the time of ineligibility for up to 18 months. Coverage cannot be continued if the dependent is covered under another group plan, or if the person is eligible for Medicare. The maximum continuation period in any case would be 18 months, starting the first month following the date of ineligibility. A dependent must have been enrolled for group coverage for at least three months to be eligible for the extension. Coverage cannot be continued if the proper contributions are not made or if the group plan terminates.

Please note: Dependents under age 18 are not eligible to continue coverage unless the parent/legal guardian is also eligible to continue coverage. Please continue coverage for:

- Spouse Spouse and Children Child(ren)

Note: You must advise, in writing, in the event you are no longer eligible for continuation or you no longer want to continue your optional benefits. I certify that I am not covered under any other insurance plan at this time, nor eligible for Medicare.
